About

Summer 2020, the middle of a global pandemic, furloughed from my Export Specialist role and with Brexit looming I decided to redirect my career to a field that unifies my logic and creative skills (and avoids the pitfalls of Brexit.)

I'm now a mature student at The University of Huddersfield studying towards a Bsc in Web Programming (graduating in 2023.) I am actively seeking part-time developer opportunities to compliment my studies. My goal is to be a freelance developer.

I am confident in the common front-end languages (HTML, CSS, Javascript) and outside of my studies I'm actively discovering back-end technologies (SQL, PHP, Node.js)

When I'm not coding I am a keen artist, musician and screenwriter.
